

Utrecht in Dialoog

Do you dare to connect?

A local dialogue between neighbours and refugees

Do you need courage to connect to people? To exchange experiences and dreams? What would your ideal be? What steps can you take?

Are you interested in exploring your thoughts and experiences about this topic with others? Would you like to discover how other people feel about such questions? Curious about the unique way a structured dialogue invites a very different kind of encounter between people?

You are most welcome Friday the 25th to join the conversation, hosted by the Library Kanaleneiland and facilitated by professionals from Utrecht in Dialoog. Dialogue in groups of max. 8 persons will be in broken English & Dutch. Participation is free of cost. All you need to bring is curiosity!

Bibliotheek Kanaleneiland, March 25th, 13.30-16.00

Adress: Al-Masoedilaan 188

Please let us know you are coming with an email or text:
d.maduro@doenjadienstverlening.nl / 06 14306236